I. Oops, I meant to add that meant to add the my email below was triggered by the section of Lisa's short briefing paper for Jane that noted

"Prior History & Background

You have not met Sergio Sanchez before. This will be your meet and greet opportunity to start a relationship with him. It is said that the office of International relations where CEC and Border are managed from will be moved under him.

Thanks Marianne,

You may want to alert Lisa that Jane recently met with Sergio Sanchez at the WHO First Global Conference on Air Pollution and Health in Geneva. Both were on the same panel for the High-level Action Day on November 1. They met and spoke briefly and Sergio mentioned his desire to come to meet with Jane soon to discuss bilateral and regional environmental cooperation, including on the topic of the WHO conference.
